

KIDS IN THE HOOD

OUR 6 EASY COSTUMES ALL START WITH A HOODIE—AND CAN BE TURNED BACK INTO PLAIN SWEATSHIRTS AFTER HALLOWEEN.

FRIENDLY FROG

Simple craft foam shoe covers and oversize eyes transform your child into a prince of an amphibian.

A Styrofoam ball cut in half, painted, and affixed with carpet tape

Froggy feet held in place with shoelaces

SHOCKING SHARK

Wearing a hoodie with face-framing teeth and a standing dorsal fin, your child will love swimming house to house in search of his favorite prey (fun-size candy bars).

Pointy teeth made of not-at-all razor-sharp craft foam, held on with red duct tape

Menacing fin attached with carpet tape

Faux fur ears, forelock, and bib held on with hidden safety pins

Tail tucked into waistband

FANTASTIC FOX

Our costume's no-sew tail gets its shape from a hidden wire hanger. Complete the foxy finery with black gloves and boots.

RALPH LAUREN HOODIE, JOE'S JEANS PANTS, STEVE MADDEN BOOTS, PAGES 60-61, SPIDER, OLD NAVY HOODIE, SOFEE PANTS, NIKE BACKPACK, CONVERSE SNEAKERS, BAT, H&M HOODIE AND LEGGINGS, PUMA SNEAKERS

Elastic cord holds up the stuffed sock legs

SUPER SPIDER

This leggy look is created by duct-taping stuffed socks to a backpack—which can be used to collect candy. Be sure to add plenty of Styrofoam ball eyes in creepy colors.
